6.3 Is this proposal to replace or intended to replace in full or in part any insurance or other designated investment products, such as unit trust or life policy, with AIA or any other financial adviser such as insurance company, bank, as well as independent financial adviser?

☐ No ☐ Yes – Please give details:

WARNING:

You may incur fees and charges as a result of (i) surrendering, or reducing your investment in, an existing designated investment product (such as unit trust or life policy), and accident and health insurance product and (ii) buying new designated investment products ("DIP(s)") or topping up other existing DIP and accident and health insurance products.

Before replacing one DIP with another, you should find out whether you are entitled to free switching with your existing DIP and consider carefully whether any fees, charges or disadvantages that may arise from a replacement will outweigh any potential benefits. Some of the disadvantages associated with replacement include the following:

- (i) you may incur transaction costs without gaining any real benefit from the replacement, e.g., duplicate sales charges;
- (ii) the new DIP may offer a lower level of benefit at a higher cost or same cost, or offer the same level of benefit at a higher cost, e.g., higher mortality charges;
- (iii) you may incur penalties for terminating the existing DIP, e.g., surrender charges; and
- (iv) the new DIP may be less suitable for you.

In addition, before replacing a life insurance product or an accident and health insurance product for another, you should consider carefully whether any fees, charges or disadvantages that may arise from a replacement will outweigh any potential benefits. Some of the disadvantages associated with replacement include the following:

- (i) you may not be insurable at standard terms;
- (ii) you may have to pay a different premium; and
- (iii) terms and conditions will be different.

In your interests, we would advise that you consult your present financial adviser before making a final decision. Hear from both sides and make a careful comparison. You can then be sure that you are making a decision that is in your best interests.

6.4 Is any application for or reinstatement of your life, critical illness, accidental, medical, disability or health-related insurance policy pending or has it ever been declined, postponed, rated or modified in any way?
