INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE OF ILP SUB-FUND

This fund seeks to achieve long-term capital appreciation through investment in quoted equities, bonds and other fixed income securities in global markets. For its bonds and fixed income portion, the current policy is to invest primarily into OECD (developed) markets although a small portion of the fund may be invested into emerging market debt securities. The fund adopts a relatively balanced approach towards equities and bonds exposure with the aim of achieving capital growth with lower short term volatility than is normally associated with a pure equity fund.

INVESTMENT APPROACH OF ILP SUB-FUND

The allocation to equities and bonds are based on a top-down analysis of major investment trends and macro variables. Our analysis focuses on how equity and bond prices react to economic fundamentals, relative value of equities versus bonds and other market factors, such as central bank decisions and geopolitical events. In addition, our established and dominant presence in Singapore and the region gives an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the domestic macro-economics, allowing us to make more informed asset allocation decisions.

The general asset mix of the Sub-Fund is 34.3% into PineBridge US Large Cap Research Enhanced Fund, 18.8% into Capital Group European Growth and Income Fund (Lux), 6.2% into Nikko AM Shenton Japan Fund, 0.7% into Aberdeen Standard Pacific Equity Fund, 17.4% into Legg Mason Western Asset Global Bond Trust and 22.1% into PineBridge International Fund – Singapore Bond Fund and 0.5% into cash. However, the target asset allocation mix may vary depending on market conditions.

INVESTMENT APPROACH OF UNDERLYING FUNDSPineBridge US Large Cap Research Enhanced Fund

The investment objective of the Fund is to attain long term growth of capital by means of a diversified portfolio through investment in equity and equity-related securities of companies, at least 90% of which have assets, products or operations based in the United States and are included in the Russell 1000 Index. Up to 10% of the value of the Fund may be invested in other companies which have a US Stock Exchange listing.

The Fund may use financial derivatives instrument ("FDI") for hedging and (subject to the CPF Board' approval) efficient portfolio management purposes. It will not use FDI extensively for any purpose. The Fund engages in forward foreign exchange contracts for hedging purposes, to alter the currency exposure of the underlying assets and may also hedge currency exchange risk by using FDI.

Capital Group European Growth and Income Fund (Lux)

Since 1931, Capital Group has been singularly focused on delivering superior, consistent results for long-term investors. Capital Group achieves this through high-conviction portfolios, rigorous global research effort and insistence on individual accountability. Capital Group's investment philosophy is to make Capital Group more knowledgeable investors through intensive global research. Capital Group uses a fundamental bottom-up approach based on thorough, detailed research supported by direct management contact.

In Capital Group's experience, investing successfully means taking a long-term view. Capital Group, therefore, emphasises long-term investments in companies and go to great lengths to determine the difference between the fundamental value of a company and its price in the marketplace. The investment professionals seek to identify securities that can do well over several years, by using fundamental analysis and paying close attention to valuations. While this approach may often involve taking a non-consensus view, the expectation is that new information will come to light that validates Capital Group's opinions and steers the consensus view in Capital Group's favour.

Capital Group believes in the value of diverse styles and perspectives. Their investment process, The Capital System, is designed to enable individual investment professionals to act on their highest convictions, while limiting the risk associated with isolated decision-making. Each portfolio is divided into portions that are managed independently by investment professionals with diverse backgrounds, experience and investment approaches. A disciplined, multi-layered governance structure oversees the system's operation.

Nikko AM Shenton Japan Fund

Nikko Asset Management Asia Limited has appointed Nikko Asset Management Co., Ltd (“Nikko AM”) of Midtown Tower, 9-7-1 Akasaka, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan 107-6242, a company domiciled in Japan, to act as the Sub-Managers of the Nikko AM Shenton Japan Fund (“Fund”).

Nikko AM has been managing collective investment schemes and/or discretionary funds for over 5 decades. Nikko AM is regulated by the Financial Services Agency, the Securities and Exchange Surveillance Commission and the Kanto Local Finance Bureau.

Investment Objective, Focus and Approach:

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve medium to long-term capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio of equity investments listed in Japan.

The Fund may also invest in bonds, money market and other instruments (including instruments included under the Central Provident Fund (“CPF”) Investment Scheme (“CPFIS”)). There is no target industry or sector.

The Managers believe that active investment management can add value to investors. They seek to add value by selectively over/under weighting benchmark components to achieve relative out-performance and carefully blending the mix with a selection of non-benchmark components to deliver absolute out-performance.

The SGD Class of the Scheme is included under the CPFIS – Ordinary Account and is classified under the Higher Risk – Narrowly Focused – Country – Japan category by the CPF Board.

The benchmark against which the Fund’s performance is measured is the TOPIX Index. Prior to 1 May 2017, the performance returns of the benchmark of the Nikko AM Shenton Japan Fund was calculated using price index methodology. With effect from 1 May 2017, the performance returns of the benchmark will be calculated using net total return index methodology. Net total return index methodology incorporates into its returns calculation the reinvestment of a constituent company’s dividend distributions net of tax credits or charges.

Aberdeen Standard Pacific Equity Fund

Aberdeen Standard Investments (Asia) Limited (“ASIAL”) investment philosophy is that markets are not always efficient. Superior returns are therefore attainable by identifying good securities (defined in terms of the fundamentals which ASIAL believes will drive security prices over the long term) cheaply. This is achieved primarily through first-hand research and active management of portfolios.

In emphasising the primacy of corporate performance, ASIAL tends to disregard the role of indices and the concept of relative return. Market capitalisation appears an unsound theoretical basis for a ‘neutral’ portfolio position, being an inherently historical construct, while consensus-driven demand is potentially distorting. Absolute return is held to be more important over the long term, with risks controlled primarily at the security level.

ASIAL may, in accordance with the provisions of the Aberdeen Standard Select Portfolio Trust Deed, invest in the securities of companies or institutions domiciled in, operating principally from, or deriving significant revenue from the relevant country or countries (as the case may be).

Legg Mason Western Asset Global Bond Trust (“Fund”)

The Fund’s investment policy will be to pursue an active but prudent approach which employs fundamental economic and market analysis to take maximum advantage of short and medium to long term investment opportunities in interest rate and currency trends of the global bond markets.

It is intended that the Fund achieves its investment objective by investing primarily in the following types of debt securities :Fixed and floating rate government and corporate bonds plus convertible bonds, commercial papers, bankers acceptances, bills of exchange, certificates of deposits, promissory notes, bank bills and treasury bills issued by governments, government linked companies and corporations in (a) Singapore; (b) countries as defined by the FTSE World Government Bond Index ex Japan (currently these countries include USA, Germany, France, UK, Canada, Italy, the Netherlands, Denmark, Finland, Spain, Switzerland, Ireland, Austria, Australia, Sweden, Norway, Belgium, Mexico, Poland, Singapore, Malaysia and South Africa) or (c) in countries that are rated with a minimum of investment grade credit rating of Aa2 by Moody’s, AA by Standard & Poor’s (“S&P”), AA by Fitch Inc. or its equivalent investment grading by any other internationally reputable credit rating agency. Since 3 January 2005, the Fund’s investments in Japanese debt securities have been limited to 10% of its Deposited Property. Such investments in Japanese debt securities have been restricted to a minimum investment grade credit rating of A2 by Moody’s, A by S&P, A by Fitch Inc. or its equivalent investment grading by any other internationally reputable credit rating agency. Otherwise, the Fund will place its monies on short term fixed deposits with banks that are rated with a minimum short term rating of A2 and P2 as defined by S&P and Moody’s respectively and long term rating of A and A3 as defined by S&P and Moody’s respectively.

To ensure that the Fund owns a portfolio of debt securities with high credit quality, it will only invest in debt securities issued by governments of benchmark countries or debt securities of issuers with a minimum credit rating of Aa2 by Moody’s, AA by S&P, AA by Fitch Inc. or its equivalent investment grading by any other internationally reputable credit rating agency (and for issuers of Japanese debt securities, a minimum credit rating of A2 by Moody’s, A by S&P, A by Fitch Inc. or its equivalent investment grading by any other internationally reputable credit rating agency).

To protect the Singapore Dollar value of the Fund’s investments, the Manager and (as the case may be) the Sub-Managers may employ an active currency hedging programme to manage their non Singapore Dollar currency exposure. For prudent management of the underlying foreign currency exposures of the bond investments in the Fund, the hedging back into the Singapore Dollar - the base currency of the Fund - may range from 0% to 100% of the Fund's net asset value at all times, i.e., the Fund may range between being fully unhedged to fully hedged, but would never be leveraged in foreign currency exposure.

To assist diversification of credit risks, other than sovereign or sovereign related credit risks, exposure to any one corporate issuer is restricted to no more than 10% of the total value of the Deposited Property of the Fund.

In order to ensure a greater degree of liquidity or marketability of the investments, the Fund will not invest in more than 5% of the aggregate issued and outstanding securities of any single issue.

The Manager and (as the case may be) the Sub-Managers currently do not intend to engage in securities lending and/or carry out repurchase transactions. However, should the Managers and (as the case may be) the Sub-Managers decide to engage in securities lending or repurchase transactions for the Fund, they shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to securities lending and repurchase transactions.

PineBridge International Funds – Singapore Bond Fund

The objective of Singapore Bond Fund is to invest as a direct investment portfolio, to provide stable income with capital preservation by investing primarily in high credit quality Singapore Dollars fixed income instruments issued by Singapore and non-Singapore entities.

The fixed income investment process uses both top-down and bottom-up approaches. A top-down approach is adopted in the structuring of portfolio duration. This is achieved through regular monitoring and assessment of economic fundamentals, technical indicators and market valuation. Prevailing views of short and medium-term directions of domestic interest rates are regularly assessed and changed if necessary, which will in turn lead to an adjustment in portfolio duration.

In terms of security selection, Singapore Bond Fund will invest in eligible securities based on the Central Provident Fund (CPF) Investment Guidelines issued by the CPF Board and the Code on Collective Investment Schemes issued by the Monetary Authority of Singapore pursuant to the Securities and Futures Act (Chapter 289 of Singapore). Credit assessment of rated securities is based primarily on the credit ratings by international rating agencies. Economic fundamentals, regulatory and political developments are monitored to provide early signals of possible shifts in ratings. Where PineBridge relies on ratings issued by credit rating agencies, PineBridge has established a set of internal credit assessment standards and have put in place a credit assessment process to ensure that the Singapore Bond Fund's investments are in line with these standards. For non-rated issues, credit analysis is based on a combination of qualitative assessment of the issuer's management, track record, the industry in which it operates, and quantitative analysis of the issuer's financial strength.

The Fund may use financial derivative instruments, including foreign exchange forwards, from time to time for the purpose of hedging. It does not intend to engage in securities lending or repurchase transactions.

RISKS

General Risk

The value of the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties and risks associated with investments. The Net Asset Value of the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund will be influenced by the prices of these investments. This will in turn have an impact on the value of Units of the ILP Sub-Fund. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance and investment in the ILP Sub-Fund should be regarded as a medium to long-term investment.

Interest Rate

Bonds and other fixed income securities are interest rate sensitive, which means that their values and consequently, the Net Asset Value of the ILP Sub-Fund which invest in such securities directly or through Underlying Fund, will fluctuate as interest rates fluctuate. An increase in interest rates will generally reduce the value of the fixed income securities. The performance of each ILP Sub-Fund which invests in bonds and other fixed income securities directly or through Underlying Fund, therefore will depend in part on the ability of the Manager of the ILP Sub-Fund or the Underlying Fund to anticipate and respond to such fluctuations in market interest rates and to utilise appropriate strategies to maximise returns to you while attempting to minimise the associated risks to its investment capital.

Credit Risk

Bonds and other fixed income securities and bank deposits are subject to credit risks, such as deterioration in the credit quality of the issuers, default by issuers and banks and general widening of credit spreads. This means that their values and consequently, the Net Asset Value of the ILP Sub-Fund which invest in such securities directly or through Underlying Fund, will fluctuate depending on the credit risk of the securities. A deterioration in the credit quality of the issuers, default by issuers or increase in credit risk premiums will generally reduce the value of the fixed income securities. The performance of each ILP Sub-Fund which invests in bonds and other fixed income securities and bank deposits directly or through Underlying Fund, therefore will depend in part on the ability of the Manager of the ILP Sub-Fund or the Underlying Fund to anticipate and respond to such changes in credit risk and to utilise appropriate strategies to maximise returns to you while attempting to minimise the associated risks to its investment capital.

Equity Risk

The value of the equity securities which the ILP Sub-Fund invest directly in or through Underlying Fund, will fluctuate depending upon the general trends of stock markets, prevailing interest rates as well as the financial and operating performance of the issuers of those equity securities. The economic environment of the countries and the performance of the industries which the ILP Sub-Fund invests in directly or through Underlying Fund will have an impact on the value of the equity securities acquired. The value of the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund are affected by such changes in the market conditions and interest rates.

Market Risk

The value of the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund's assets may be affected by uncertainties such as international political developments, changes in government policies, taxation, restrictions on foreign investment and currency repatriation, currency fluctuations and other developments in the laws and regulations of countries in which investments may be made. Furthermore, it should be noted that the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in certain countries in which investments may be made do not provide the same degree of investor protection or information to you as would generally apply in major securities markets. As the ILP Sub-Fund and Underlying Fund invest in securities in various markets, e.g. global, Asia ex-Japan, etc, the Net Asset Value of the ILP Sub-Fund and Underlying Fund will be influenced by the prices of these investments. This will in turn have an impact on the value of Units of the ILP Sub-Fund.

Counterparty Risk

There is a risk of counterparty defaulting in some markets as there may be no secure method of delivery against payment. It may be necessary to make payment on a purchase or delivery on a sale before receipt of the securities or, as the sale may be, sale proceeds.

Regulatory Risk

You should be aware that some of the industries which the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund invest in may be subject to greater government regulations than many other industries in certain countries. Changes in government policies and the need for regulatory approval may have a material adverse effect on these industries. The companies which the ILP Sub-Fund invests in directly or through Underlying Fund may also be subject to risks of developing technology and communications, competitive pressures and other factors and are dependent upon consumer and business acceptance as new technologies evolve. Trading in such securities may be subject to more abrupt price movements.

Political Risk

Investments in countries with less stable political and economic environments may be more volatile than those in the developed countries. The prices of investments in these markets may be influenced by economic and political conditions and interest rates.

Investment Risk

There can be no guarantee against loss, nor any assurance that the ILP Sub-Fund's investment objective will be attained. The value of investments and the income from them and therefore the value of, and income from, the Units of each ILP Sub-Fund can fall as well as rise and you may not realize the same amount that you invested. Investment in the ILP Sub-Fund may only be suitable for you if you can accept the associated volatility and risks and are prepared to take a medium to longer term view of your investment.

Specialized Investment Risk

You should be aware while specialized investments, i.e. investments in a single country, specific industries, sectoral or regional Fund may present greater opportunities and potential for capital appreciation, they may also be subjected to higher risks as they may be less diversified than a global portfolio. The legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in certain countries in which investments may be made do not provide the same degree of investor protection or information to you as would generally apply in major securities markets.

Derivative Risk

The ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund are authorised to use derivative instruments from time to time. Derivative instruments are financial contracts whose values are "derived" from the value of the underlying assets. While the professional use of derivatives may be beneficial to the overall investment portfolio, derivatives in themselves involve different risks which may be greater than those of more traditional investments. As the volatility of prices of derivative instruments may be higher than that of their underlying stocks, commodities or other benchmarks, these derivative instruments are riskier.

Currency / Exchange Rate Risk

The Net Asset Value per unit of the ILP Sub-Fund are computed in Singapore Dollars, whereas certain Underlying Fund and the securities which the ILP Sub-Fund invests in are denominated in foreign currencies. Changes in the exchange rate of the Singapore Dollar against the currencies of denomination of the Underlying Fund and the securities which the ILP Sub-Fund invests in will have an impact on the value of the units.

The investments of the ILP Sub-Fund and the Underlying Fund may each be denominated in a number of different currencies and hence be subjected to fluctuations in currency exchange rates and in certain cases, exchange control regulations. Further, the underlying investments of the Underlying Fund may be acquired in a wide range of currencies, some of which may not be freely convertible currencies. It may not be possible or practicable to hedge against the consequent currency risk exposure and in certain instances the Manager may not consider it desirable to hedge against such risk. The Manager will enter into hedging transactions at its sole discretion. If you are a non-Singaporean, there may be state regulations governing the outward remittance of your share of net profits and dividends and the repatriation of your investments in a foreign currency.

Liquidity Risk

There is no secondary market for the ILP Sub-Fund. All redemption requests should be made to AIA Customer Service Centre or through your AIA Financial Services Consultant or Insurance Representative. If you are a non-Singaporean, there may be state regulations governing the outward remittance of your share of net profits and dividends and the repatriation of your investments in a foreign currency.

You should note that there may be a limit on the number of units that can be redeemed on any Dealing Day and an investor may not be able to redeem on a Dealing Day if the redemption limit is imposed. Some investments made in smaller markets may be less liquid and the limited liquidity of these markets may therefore affect the respective underlying fund's ability to acquire or dispose of securities at the price and time it desires.

Taxation

You should note that the proceeds from the sale of securities in some markets or the receipt of any dividends or some other income may be or may become subject to tax, levies, duties or other fees or changes imposed by the authorities in that market, including taxation levied by withholding at source.

EXPENSE RATIO

The expense ratio for the period 1 January 2018 to 31 December 2018 is 1.55%.

The expense ratio is calculated in accordance with the Investment Management Association of Singapore's guidelines on the disclosure of expense ratios and based on the figures in the ILP Sub-Fund's latest audited account.

The following expenses are excluded from the calculation of the expense ratio:

- (c) performance fees;
- (d) foreign exchange gains and losses;

- (f) tax deducted at source or arising from income received.

Risk Disclosure Statement for Funds

US Tax Withholding and Reporting under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA")

Under the FATCA provisions of the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment ("HIRE") Act, where a Fund invests directly or indirectly in U.S. assets, payments to the Fund of U.S.-sourced income after 30 June 2014, gross proceeds of sales of US property by the Fund after 31 December 2016 and certain other payments received by the Fund after 31 December 2016 will be subject to 30% U.S. withholding tax unless the Fund complies with FATCA.

FATCA compliance can be achieved by entering into an agreement with the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury under which the Fund agrees to certain U.S. tax reporting and withholding requirements as regards holdings of and payments to certain investors in the Fund. Certain governments may enter into agreements directly with the U.S. government concerning U.S.-sourced income and the regulations and rules which are issued following these agreements will determine how the Fund can achieve FATCA compliance.

If the Fund is unable to satisfy the obligations imposed to avoid the imposition of the withholding tax, certain U.S.-sourced payments to the Fund may be subject to 30% withholding tax, which could reduce the cash available for investors. Any amounts of U.S. tax withheld may not be refundable by the Inland Revenue Service.

You are advised to consult your professional advisors on the impact of FATCA on any Fund that you have selected for allocation of any part of your Policy premium(s) and AIA Singapore makes no representation or warranty that a Fund is FATCA-compliant.

In the context of the above, a "Fund" means a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289), Singapore and the Notice No. MAS 307 applicable to Investment-Linked Policies issued by the Monetary Authority of Singapore.
